Memo from the Desk of

JOHN V. HINKEL

30 July 1975

Dear Angus:

The enclosures may be of interest.

We're damned mad at what they're trying to do to you guys, and we don't have to tell you that we're behind you 100%. Bill Colby in our book is doing a terrific job even though his valuable time is consumed principally, it seems, in fighting a rear-guard action.

Did you read John Lofton's excellent column in the last issue of HUMAN EVENTS? He really put it to Seymour Hersh.

Cordially,

John V. Hinkel
